

LETTERS TO THE DEADITOR

Hey Corpsy – I’ve been incarcerated since the ripe age of 15 and now I’m 22, so you can imagine I’ve read a lot of magazines, but your magazine is, hands-down, the greatest fuckin’ ‘zine ever! I’ve been intrigued with death since I was a child, which led to my demise and earned me a life sentence in a California state prison. As a child I spent hours on the web looking at dead stuff, reading books about killers and watching tons of horror films. I’m glad to see a magazine dead-icated to the things I love. Keep that shit up!

Josh

Hi Josh. Thanks for the note. So sorry that you used the fantasy aspects of horror that you saw on the web, and turned them into a tragic reality, throwing away your young life. True, we are “dead-icated” to death and horror, with a slice of comedy, but we separate real-life horror (which surrounds our lives) with the fantasy of horror films and magazines like G&C. Your letter reminded me of a horror convention I exhibited at a few years ago and O.J. Simpson was also signing. Everyone was appalled that O.J. was there – a real murderer. Girls and Corpses is pure fantasy. But it appears you turned your life into a real horror film. Just think, if horror fans were all actual killers there would be no one left to read Girls and Corpses Magazine.

RIP, Corpsy

I have signed up to be plastinated after I die and I am a body donor with Gunther von

SEND YOUR LETTERS TO:
Info@girlsandcorpse.com or
G&C MAGAZINE ATTN:
Letters to the Deaditor
11333 Moorpark Street #192
Studio City CA 91602

Hagens (Body Worlds). You can use me with the girls when I am no more!

Richard

Thank you for the generous offer of your corpse, Richard, but our vault is filled to the brim with models for future shoots. Seems everyone wants to hook up with our girls after they become corpses. Also, frankly, we don’t take Body Worlds hand-me-downs. If you want to model for G&C, we do our own body prep, including a deep tissue massage and a happy ending.

I’m from Brazil and I must say, G&C’s THE BEST THING I’VE EVER SEEN! I can’t stop laughing at the pictures! I had anatomy classes in the university and I almost got in trouble for making fun of the bodies and doing stupid things with them (like playing with a leg as a weapon and using a decapitated head to play volleyball), so for me, finding this magazine was absolutely fabulous! I’ve already shown the website to a lot of friends, and they also can’t believe someone could make a magazine so great like this one. Keep up the excellent job!

Vinicius

Glad you dig the magazine, Vinicius (are you a Gladiator?). Sounds like you had a blast in Brazilian anatomy class and invented a few new world sports. FYI – we get releases from our corpse models so we can use them for the magazine. So, please try to refrain from decapitation volleyball, as fun as it might be. Remember, “do unto corpses as you would have corpses do unto you.”

The best magazine ever in the history of mankind!

Ignacio

We couldn’t agree more.

When my two best friends discovered Girls and Corpses, we experienced feelings of sheer happiness, excitement, fulfillment, and a wild urge to go to the cemetery and dig up a body. Of course we didn’t do that ... seeing how it’s illegal and I am in the process of getting a cheerleading scholarship. Anyway, I must admit that the three of us are what you would call “outcasts” around here due to our oversexed, horror-loving, head-banging nature. And now, we have found something that perfectly reflects our personalities as well as our sex-drives. So, we thank you from the bottom of our tomb. Eat, drink, and sleep, Girls and Corpses!

Love you to Death,
Lizzie, Mike, and Mariel

You girls apparently have high I.Q.s. I’m always amazed when someone doesn’t understand G&C and thinks we are a necrophilia magazine. But we are glad you get it – so please keep buying the magazine so we can keep this corpse alive. Hmm ... Cheerleaders and Corpses ... oops, we already did that one.

Moin! I like your magazine and bought the German issue. Girls and Corpses rulez!
Stumpf

Danke schön! Our corpses are thrilled to be translated into German. Next Japan, China, Russia and the world!

I am currently on a quest to acquire every filth-ridden, perverted issue of the sheer beauty that is Girls and mother fucking Corpses!

Forever Dead,
Brandon

You sir, are a poet. But no need for a quest – just order all the back issues here: GirlsandCorpsesStore.com

Yeeee Haaaw! I sure do love yer magazine, Corpsy! When I'm sittin' in the trailer all alone at night, lookin' at all the purty girls and dead bodies, well I'm cookin' up ideas of my own. I'm thinkin' about makin' something' beautiful, and then destroyin' it! Shit, I only come out the woods for three thangs: smokes, Pabst, and yer dang magazine!

JD

Thanks Bubba. Keep cooking yer road kill and skull fuckin' your sister ... er ... cousin.

Just wanted to thank you for the calendar. Not only is it a great product, but I ordered it on Friday and received it the following Monday. Super fast shipping! Awesome. Thanks again, G&C!

Dean

That's pretty fast, considering we ship by hearse.

Salutations from Portugal! This morning I have received four of your magazines. They are really cool, fun ... they're killer! Very great job! Thanks and good continuation!

Mel

Thanks for the order, Mel. P.S. Is good continuation like regularity?

What's better than hot/beautiful/sexy girls and fucking brutal down to death corpses!?

Raven's Goat

I dunno you got me? Twins and corpses? Oops ... we already did that one too.

Corpsy, thanks for your awesome support for deployed soldiers. When things get too hot and boring out here in the desert nothing breaks up the monotony like cold corpses and colder jokes. Stay dead.

SGT. Bill Hendrickson

If we can make you feel cool in the desert then we've done our job. We always support our troops and we have a ton of readers deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan. Thank you for keeping us from all becoming corpses in the U.S.

HOoooROT!

I was injured for a second time in Iraq and to keep myself busy while at home healing I read Girls and Corpses. Pretty good shit! Anyhow, I have a couple of your issues with Sid Haig and Sheri Moon Zombie and I just purchased all of Volume 1 and Volume 2, and these books rock! Anyhow, keep the magazines coming and thanks. You guys are truly dark.

David A. Hamilton SFC
10th Special Forces Weapons Sergeant

Keep making corpses out of terrorists and we'll keep printing magazines.

I'm a HUGE fan of your magazine, and just wanted to take the time to say thank you for existing and to all your graphic designers, contributors, editor and all your staff on their diligent and driven work put into each month's volume. Thanks again for all your hard work and determination each month.

Alex Snow

We truly appreciate your kind words of encouragement. You make our staff sound much larger than it is. And, no, you can't have a free subscription.

You guys are fucking awesome! Thanks for the laughs! I want to pose with a corpse! Anyways I listened to you on a radio show and you said you met with Bradbury! So rad! I love him and I love what you guys are doing! Fucking cutting edge baby! Love love LOVE!

Missy Lou

At the memorial for Forest J. Ackerman, I gave Ray Bradbury a copy of Girls and Corpses Magazine and his eyes lit up – and when he was helped to the front of the stage in his wheelchair he was still clutching his copy of G&C. It doesn't get much better than that.

(see photo in Celebs and Corpses)